International patient admission flowchart

Refer the patient to the international patient reception unit

↓

Introducing the patient to the IPD specialist by the reception unit

↓

Receiving the necessary documents and type of service from the patient by the IPD expert

↓

Does the patient have health insurance?

— No → Referral of the patient/company of the contracting party to receive health insurance for health tourism

— Yes ↓

Does the patient have a confirmation of not being infected with infectious diseases?

— No → Does the patient have an infectious disease?
  — Yes → Contact the infectious disease doctor to inform about illness
  — No → Referral of the patient/company of the contracting party to receive confirmation of non-infection of infectious diseases

— Yes ↓

Does the patient need inpatient services?

— No → Coordination with the outpatient service provider unit required by the IPD specialist ↓ Visiting the patient with an IPD expert to receive the desired service

— Yes →

Contact the infectious disease doctor to inform about illness → Does the doctor allow the patient to be hospitalized?
  — No → Failure to accept the patient

↓

Inform the IPD doctor to coordinate with the treating doctor by the IPD expert

↓

Coordinating with the reception unit to receive the patient by the IPD expert

↓

Patient admission, filing and attachment of previous documents by the patient's IPD

↓

Accompanying the patient to the inpatient department and introducing her/him by the IPD

↓

Patient admission in the ward

❋required documents

- ❖ Passport or passport of the country of origin
- ❖ Hospitalization order of the referring doctor (if any)
- ❖ Medical documents and records
- ❖ Authentic confirmation that the person does not suffer from IHR infectious diseases
- ❖ Health tourism insurance